Sergeant Colin McKenzie was a Loyalist settler on Amherst Island. He was born in Scotland in 1745, and came to America ^{in 1767} as a member of the Royal Artillery. At a later date he was discharged from the service and settled at Crown Point, several miles north of Ticonderoga, on the west shore of Lake Champlain.

who were investigating the claims of Loyalists for loss of property during the late Revolution. He was claiming indemnication for losses sustained by the seizure of his assets at Crown Point. He had given his claim to Captain Gummersal, who was proceeding to England.

Here is a copy of his claim:

"Evidence on the Claim of Colin McKenzie, late of Crown Point, N. Y. Province.

Claimt. Sworn:

He is a native of Scotland. He came to America in 1767---a soldier in the Royal Artillery. When the Rebellion broke out he lived at Crown Point. He joined Gen. Burgoyne in 1776 and acted as a guide to part of the Army. At the Convention he returned to Canada. Enlisted in Jessup's Corps and served the War as Sergt.

He now resides on the Bay of Quinte. He had a House at Crown Point, he bought it.

After the War began, he gave £150 to Robt. Lewis, York--Congress Money for it, and 400 Drs. for his Furniture. He had 3 Oxen, 2 Cows and 3 Hogs, and some Hay destroyed by the rebels. The House and Furniture was destroyed.

Wits. Joseph Franklyn, Sworn:

Remembers Collin McKenzie's House or that he lived in. He had a Br. in Law to whom the house belonged. He had some cattle. Claimt. says he does not charge for his Brothers House.

Dr. Thos. Sparham, Sworn:

Says that he remembers Robert Lewis House and that . McKenzie bought in in 1776.

It was a good new House and was burnt down. Believes he had some

Roderick McKay, Provincial Grand Master Elect, with William Barber, a surgeon, and Peter Sand (also Miss Susan McKenzie & Mr. Jones Johnston) were crossing from Amherst Island to the Village (of Bath) in a sail boat, which by some unknown accident, upset, and in consequence of having some ballast immediately sank,
and shocking to relate, every person on board perished.

The John Langhorn records her burial as Susannah, dau. of Colin McKenzie & Mary Howard, was baptized 31 July, 1798, and was buried 15 Sept 1818.

Dear Mr. Hogeboom:

Thank you for your letter of March 25, 1974.

I was able to locate patents for the following people.
If you wish to order copies write: The Recording Office,
Ministry of Government Services, 3rd Floor, Hearst Block, Bay & Wellesley Streets, Toronto, Ontario. The fee is $1.50 per patent and your cheque should be made payable to the Treasurer of Ontario. Be sure to quote all details.

Colin McKenzie, 77 acres, May 25, 1802, middle 3rd part of Lot 2, Concession 1, Ernesttown Twp., Lennox & Addington.
Liber M.C., Folio 305.

The story regarding Thomas McKenzie is somewhat more involved. On Feb. 5, 1829, an Order-in-Council was passed, granting him 200 acres of land as the son of a United Empire Loyalist (see copy). However, Thomas was never located though he held the scrip for many years (see letter dated May 29, 1840, testifying to this fact). Between 1840 and 1843, Thomas died and a new Order-in-Council (dated Feb. 18, 1843) was passed, giving the scrip to his eldest brother and "heir at law"--the brother's name was Colin McKenzie. I checked the Index to Patents for 1843-1850 to see if Colin had actually obtained land from this transaction. No patent was found, which makes me think that once he had received the scrip in 1843, he then either sold it immediately or perhaps he sold it after location, but before patenting had taken place.

Lastly, there is the case of Panina Hogaboom. Her Order-in-Council was dated June 2, 1831 (see enclosed copy). On Jan. 22, 1833, the Surveyor General's Office sent a form letter to Mr. Mount--the land agent in Caradoc Township, Middlesex County, instructing him to locate Panina. The location was made on Lot 25, Concession 5, Warwick Township, Lambton County, on August 1, 1833. However, Panina did not receive a patent--she sold her right to the land and Ira Byrns received the patent on Oct. 10, 1856 for the west part of the same lot. (This information is taken from the Abstract Index to Deeds for Warwick Township.)

I hope that the above information will be of some help to you. For more detailed searches, one should consult the Ontario Genealogical Society, as they maintain a list of researchers who will trace family trees for a reasonable fee. I have enclosed their brochure for your information.

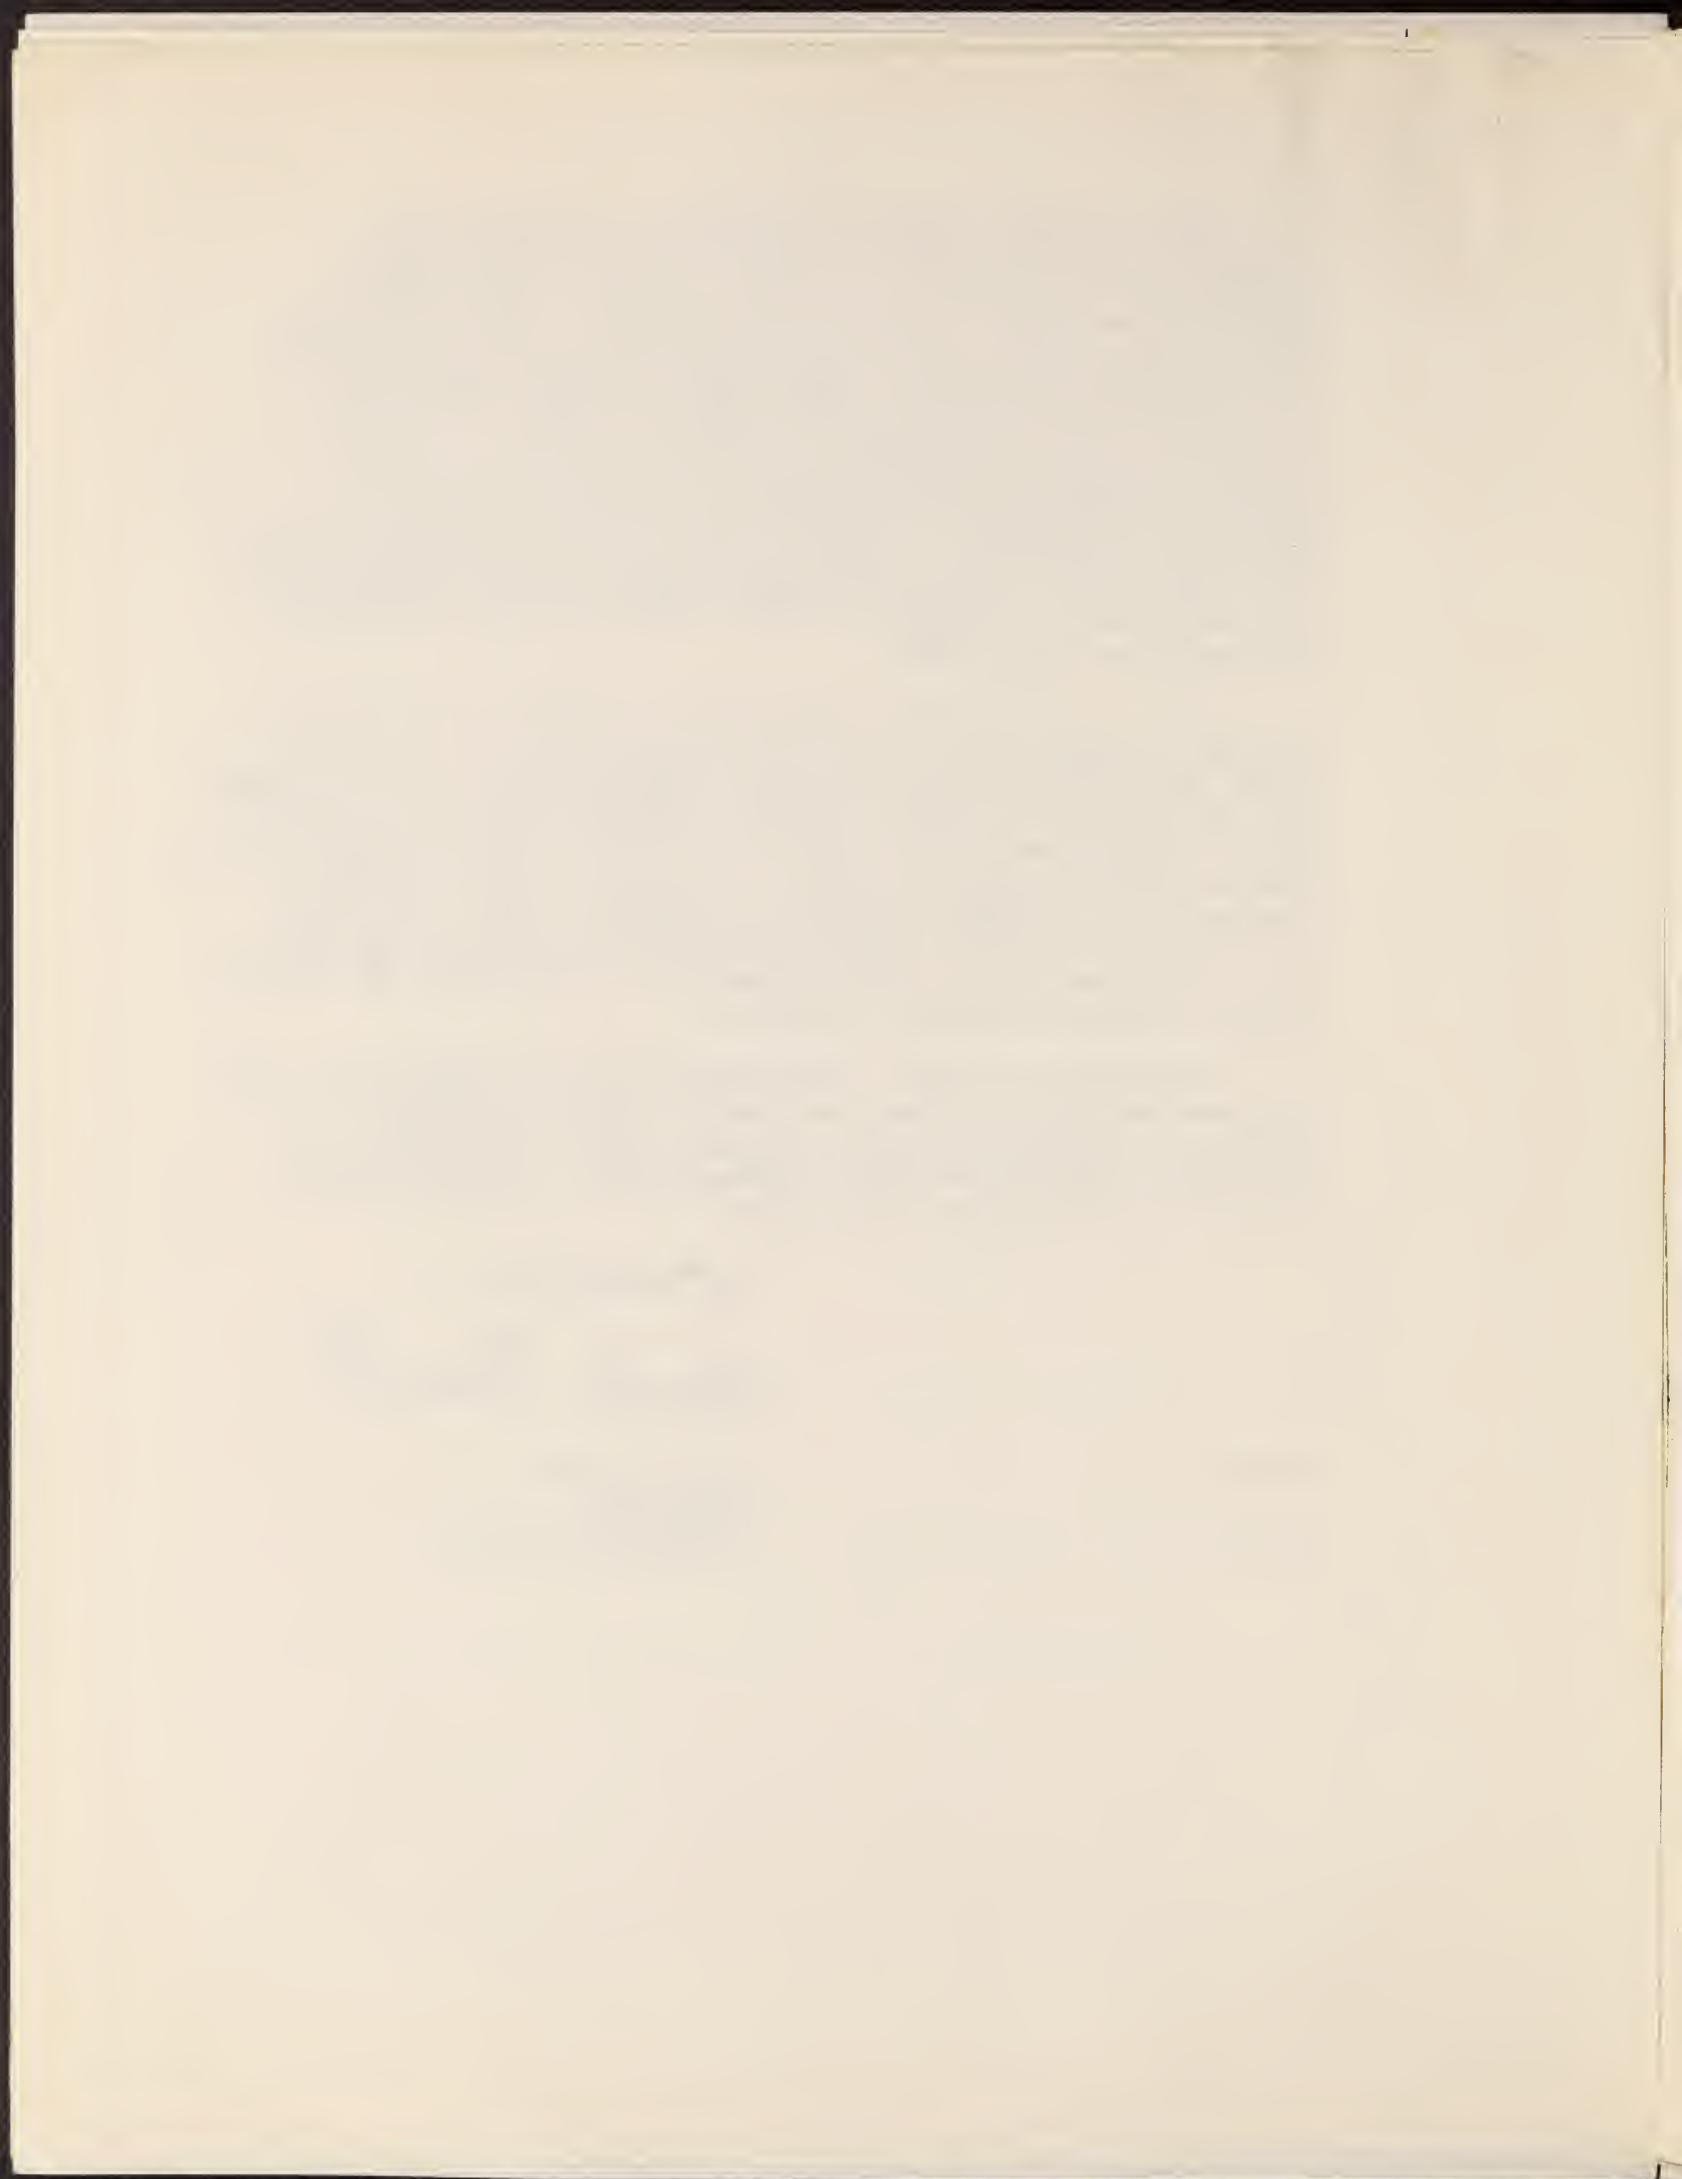

Yours sincerely,

DR/mp

McKenzie, Colin

A search of the indexes and logical sources in our custody produced the following references to Colin (Collin) McKenzie (McKinsey):

1. The names of both Colin McKenzie Senior and Junior appear in the United Empire Loyalist List maintained by the Crown Lands Department in Toronto. They were residents of Ernestown Township and had served in the Loyal Rangers, the elder as a sergeant and the younger as a drummer (The Centennial of the Settlement of Upper Canada by the United Empire Loyalists . . . Toronto: Rose Publishing Company, 1885, pages 226-227; microfilm reel C-1476).
2. a) Colin McKenzie "late of Crown Point", New York, claimed for losses sustained during the American Revolution (Report of the Ontario Archives, 1904, pages 450-451 and 1280). Colin McKenzie's claim is on pages 450-451 while that of Sarah, his wife, and sister of William Powers is on page 1280.
 b) Colin McKenzie and Sarah, his wife, formerly of New York, claimed for losses. The original claims are in the Public Record Office, London, England. The Public Archives of Canada has a microfilm copy (Audit Office 12, volume 133, p. 131; no such file microfilm reel B-1182, and volume 109, p. 222/1584 (list only) microfilm B-1180, volume 64, p. 289, microfilm B-1169).
3. There are numerous references to Colin (Collin) McKenzie in the papers of General Sir Frederick Haldimand also available on microfilm.
 - a) On returns of Loyalists dated between the years 1779 and 1787 (MI 21, B. 10, pp. 10, 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, 70, 80, 90, 100, 110, 120, 130, 140, 150, 160, 170, 180, 190, 200, 210, 220, 230, 240, - d) A letter dated 1 April 1781 at St. John's, Colin McKenzie to Postmaster General Hugh Finlay asking permission, with his brother-in-law Wm. Powers, to entertain passengers to make up for losses by post stages (Haldimand Papers, MG 21, G, British Museum Manuscript 21, 860; PAC transcript B.200-2, pp. 314-315). This document was calendared in the Report of the Public Archives of 1888 on page 1023. Copies of pages 314-315 are enclosed.
4. Colin McKenzie's name appears in our British Military and Naval Records, "C" Series. Items relate to ordnance stores for the garrison at St. John's, Lower Canada and are dated 1 September 1794 and 16 June 1795 (RG 8, "C" Series, volume C.511, pp. 119 and 189; microfilm reels C-3044 and C-3045 respectively).
5. Colin McKenzie was a Justice of the Peace in the Midland District. Dated at Kingston 15 December 1831 (RG 8, "C" Series, vol. C.209, p. 74; microfilm C-2784). Copy enclosed. (not enclosed)
6. Collin (sic) McKenzie petitioned for land in Upper Canada in 1797 (U.C. Land Petitions, RG 1, L3, vol. 329, M3/117, microfilm reel C-2192).

Sir/

I Take the Liberty to acquaint you, That the Post Stage at this Place, has not proved out to any Advantage this Winter, as Hays and Oals have been furnished at so high a Price, That I have been a Great Loser. The Price being so Low between this Post and Chancery, That it will not pay for the Horses Keeping, &c. I, having no Advantage to entertain Passengers, is a Very Great Loss, as in having that Liberty, might make some Compensation for Losses. [Some] ways. I have a Mother in Law here, Mr. M. Powers, who is in Possession of a Good Commodious House, who is willing to join with me in furnishing this Post, provided we could have the Liberty of entertaining Passengers. Under such Regulations, as the Commanding Officer shall think proper to give, I hope your Honours will take the above into Consideration, and let us know your Determination.

I am with Great Respect Your Honours Most Obedient Humble Servant

Dear Dr. Burleigh:-

I wrote to Mr. Neal in connection with the old cemetery at the church and asked him also if there is an historical society in Bath and he gave me your name as a man interested in local history.

I am a great great granddaughter of Colin Mackenzie who is buried at St. John's. My personal Centennial project is to find out as much as I can about my ancestors and though I have traced the people who signed the letter still live in Bath. He was my great grandfather and from there down I have a pretty comprehensive history of the family. I have recently been reading a book on the history of Lennox & Addington which I consider a very good effort & I wondered if you would like to see these papers of mine or if the Adolphustown museum would be interested. I could have photostats made as I would like to keep the originals myself.

I hope I have not bored you with these facts but I would like to find out more about the Mackenzies if I could.

Could you help me at all or direct me to some one who could?

Thank you for any information you can give me

most of them pretty thoroughly. I find I know very little about the Machenzies. I recently came across a paper appointing him to be customs inspector of the Port of Bath. I also found the deed of a house he bought from one Mary Atkinson. I believe he settled in Bath as a Loyalist but am not sure of this nor do I know whether he came up from New York state as the Bogarts did, also ancestors of mine. One of his daughters married Dr. ~~Gen~~ Robert Stewart and I have in my possession a letter signed by the citizens of Bath when he decided to leave and go to Kingston. I believe some descendants to
